DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-28 and 32-95 are allowed (renumbered as 1-92).
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: many references in the art disclose a method for communication in connection with a computer-based notification system comprising: initiating a first notification communication to a personal communication device associated with a party; receiving a response communication from the party's personal communication device; refraining from sending notification communication to the party's personal communication device after receiving the response communication, such as found in Sebanc et al. (US 6,943,679). The prior art of record does not teach or suggest, in the claimed combination, a method of communication that includes the step of changing a contact data based upon a response communication from a party's personal communication device after initiating a first notification communication and initiating a second notification communication to the party's personal communication device after detecting of occurrence of one or more events.

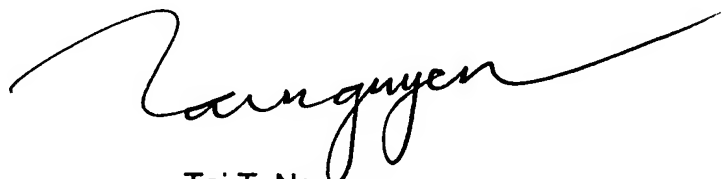

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
